

3. The Ambush

Last time, on Huntr/x Quest...

After saving as many people as you could from the latest demon attack, you rushed back to Jeju island to tell Celine about Agwi Hwasin and the latest demon threat. She told you to continue monitoring the situation while she heads to the Library of Jang, an important hidden historical archive for the hunters. Somewhere in the library is the Chronicles of Mudang, a tome that she believes will reveal more about this demon and how it can be confronted.

Now heroes, prepare yourselves for Chapter 3: The Ambush.

Celine tells you to rest, and that she will make preparations for her trip in the morning. However, as night falls on Jeju island you find yourself suddenly confronted by a small army of demons who appear out of nowhere! How did they manage to ambush even this sacred place?

Amidst the chaos, Celine is nowhere to be found. You have to find her!

X = The girls start here.

A = When they first open either of these doors, reveal the two characters at (A) and say the following:

As you rush out the door, you see a horrible monstrosity in the distance: could this be Agwi Hwasin himself? He is dragging an unconscious Celine with him! He speaks unintelligible words at a nearby wall, shattering it into a million pieces and he drags Celine away into the cloud of smoke.

With this, reveal the secret door next to Agwi Hwasin at (A) and remove him and Celine from the board.

B = Upon opening any of these doors, all three of them immediately open and the contents become visible/active.

Say: You can see the heavy, dirty footprints of a demon that came through here recently: but you are not alone here!

C = Upon opening any of these doors, all three of them immediately open and the contents become visible/active. Turn the furniture in these rooms on their sides or back to make it look ransacked.

Say: This must have been Celine's apartment. The place looks ransacked. These demons are looking for something.

When searched, say Celine kept a Potion of Healing in her desk drawer, as well as 100gp per hero. It seems to still be intact. You take it. (Provide the potion of healing as a reward instead of pulling from the Treasure deck)

D = Upon opening any of these doors, all three of them immediately open and the contents become visible/active. Turn this furniture askew as well to indicate it is also ransacked.

Say: How did they do so much damage so quickly? They must be desperate. You have to keep going and find Celine!

E = When opening these doors, place the contents of this room and say:

*There they are! You spot the demon and the still-unconscious Celine. It turns to you and stares into your soul with eyes of ancient flame, and then scoffs. "There is nothing you can do to stop what I will unleash on the world. If you want your mentor back, you will have to take her from me... if you can."

With a deafening roar and a momentary glimpse of the unbearable heat of the underworld at their feet, Celine and Agwi Hwasin disappear into the earth. The hole that opened below them closes as suddenly as it opened, leaving no trace of how to follow them into the underworld.*

Take Celine and Agwi Hwasin off of the board.

The demon left behind an intimidating looking minion: the mummy that stands before you looks particularly fearsome, and his bandages crackle with purple energy. Prepare to defend yourselves!

F = This empowered Mummy has the following statistics:

Attack dice: 4 Defense dice: 4 Movement: 4 Body Points: 6 Mind Points: 0 (Undead) Type: Mindless Maneuver: Intimidate Special: Heroes who end their turn in line of sight of the monster take 1 Body Point of damage unless they succeed on a Mind Check, from the corrupting power of the purple energy emanating from his body.

Once defeated, say:

*The girls survey the damage done by the demons. Among the wreckage, they find 600gp each that Celine must have been saving for an emergency. I think she'd understand if now is the time to use it.

Rumi narrows her eyes. "If we're going to save Celine, we're going to need to figure out how to follow her, and what we're facing. It looks like we have a date at the Library."*

Wandering Monster in this Quest is: Orc

BUILT ON HQUESTBUILDER.COM | QUEST CREATED BY